Schedule – “A” Significant Accounting Policies and Notes on Accounts

[A] Significant Accounting Policies

(1) Method of Accounting and Use of Estimates

The accounts are prepared on accrual basis. The preparation of Financial Statements requires estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities as on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual result and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known / materialized.

(2) Life membership Fees and Entrance Fees

Life membership fees and entrance fees received from the members are credited to Trust corpus fund.

(3) Revenue Recognition

Membership fees have been accounted on accrual basis.

(4) Investments

Investments are stated at cost of acquisition.

(5) Fixed Assets

Fixed Assets received as a gift are stated at the transferred price and acquired are stated at cost of acquisition which includes taxes, duties and other identifiable, direct expenses which are attributable to acquisition of fixed assets and other direct expenses and overheads incurred up to date on which such assets were first put to use.

(6) Depreciation

The depreciation is not provided for on Fixed Assets.

(7) Retirement Benefits

Leave encashment for the year under review have been paid during the year however ex-gratia payments shall be accounted as when paid.

(8) Government Grant

Government grants of Capital Nature are credited to other Earmarked fund and treated as a part of trust fund corpus.

(9) Leases

Land subject to operating leases is included under Fixed Assets. Rent (Lease) payment is recognized in the Income and Expenditure account on a payment basis over the lease term.

(10) Impairment of Assets

The Trust evaluates impairment of losses on the Fixed Assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment loss is then recognised for the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds recoverable amount, which is the higher of an assets net selling price and value in use.

[B] Notes on Accounts

- (1) All Balances of Sundry Creditors, Sundry Debtors, Advances and Deposits are as per the book and subject to confirmation and reconciliation from respective parties.
- (2) In the opinion of the Board of Trustees Current Assets, Loans and Advances are approximately of the same value if realized in the ordinary course of business. The provisions for all known liabilities are made and it is adequate and not in excess of the amount reasonably necessary.
